

Palm Kernel Expeller (PKE)

HS 2306.60 · Livestock & aquaculture feed ingredient

High-protein feed ingredient pressed at our own facility in East Kalimantan, supplied to feed makers across Asia and Oceania.

TYPICAL EXPORT SPECIFICATION

|               |                      |
|---------------|----------------------|
| Crude protein | 14% – 16% (min. 13%) |
| Crude fat     | 9% – 10%             |
| Crude fibre   | max. 18%             |
| Moisture      | max. 12%             |
| Ash           | max. 5%              |
| Shell content | 10% – 15%            |

COMMERCIAL TERMS

|                   |                                                                                                                             |
|-------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Incoterms         | FOB (Incoterms 2020), East Kalimantan, Indonesia                                                                            |
| Minimum order     | 500 MT per shipment                                                                                                         |
| Packing & loading | As per buyer's requirement: bulk vessel, container (loose or bagged) bags or jumbo bags on request, priced in the quotation |
| Documents         | Commercial invoice, packing list, B/L, COO, phytosanitary, fumigation (where required), Certificate of Analysis             |

Indicative ranges for a natural agricultural by-product. The binding specification for each shipment is stated in the sales contract.